

With regard to the current social unrest, At FCC, we expect all followers of Jesus to be anti-racist. This is not a political position, but rather a Christian, biblical position. We desire to foster mutual love of all people regardless of color or national origin, toward one another. We believe it is our calling as Followers of Jesus to address systems, cultures and conditions, both across the street and around the world, which keep human beings from flourishing as intended by their Creator. We will focus not on assigning blame, but on seeking and working toward solutions, together in the name of Jesus.
